PubMed Mobile Beta

PubMed Mobile Beta, is a simplified mobile-friendly web interface that includes the same basic search functionality and content as Standard PubMed but does not include the following features: Limits, Advanced Search, MyNCBI, Clipboard or the LinkOut/Outside tool. To use any of these features as well as other PubMed features, you will need to display your retrieval in Standard PubMed.

You can filter results by using the links to Free-full text or Review in the results page. If the article is available free of charge from the publisher, a link to the PDF version should display in the mobile mode. A link to Standard PubMed is available at the bottom of all PubMed Mobile pages.

To access PubMed Mobile Beta go to: http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/m/pubmed/

Featured Website: TED.com

TED's motto is "Ideas Worth Spreading." TED (Technology, Entertainment, Design) posts free videos of short, idea-packed talks given at their annual conferences. Creative Commons licensing allows free downloading and re-use. "The annual conference now brings together the world's most fascinating thinkers and doers, who are challenged to give the talk of their lives (in 18 minutes)." Speakers include world-renowned scientists, musicians, and other artists and innovators. An 18-minute TED Talk is a fun educational, and thought provoking way to spend a few minutes when you need a break.
