New Changes in PubMed

If you have been searching PubMed in the past few weeks you have probably noticed the following changes:

- An announcement about NIH Public Access Policy and how to enter your manuscript in PubMed Central
- A link to an Advanced search (beta) screen where you can try a combination of search terms and limit your information on the same screen.
- The availability to activate or turn off limits for all your searches
- When displaying your results, the blue bar on the left hand side with links to other search options is no longer available

More information on the Advanced Search (beta) is available in the NLM Technical Bulletin at:
http://www.nlm.nih.gov/pubs/techbull/mj08/mj08_advanced_search.html

New EBSCOhost Interface Coming in July

EBSCOhost will launch a new interface and search enhancements in July.
Some of the new features are:

- A "How to Cite" feature will provide citation formatting information for some commonly-used citation styles, like AMA and APA, Chicago and MLA
- The right sidebar will include access to related articles
- Search limiters, expanders and search modes in Advanced Search will be displayed fully, reducing the need to scroll
- Search History will be located directly above the search results

- New display-related thumbnails of images, where applicable, will be displayed adjacent to search results and can be previewed by hovering over them
- Set date limiters for searches with a slider scale instead of using drop-downs or typing
- Clustered search results will include more detailed categories

More information and a Flash demo of EBSCOhost's enhancements can be found at:
http://www.ebscohost.com/thisTopic.php?marketID=1&topicID=969 or by accessing the "New Features!" link while using one of these databases.

HAM-TMC Educational level users have access to EBSCOHost databases, including CINAHL Plus with Full Text.
