New Resource: The Chronicle of Higher Education

The Chronicle of Higher education is the newest electronic resource acquired by the Library. A special feature of this resource is access to Really Simple Syndication (RSS) feeds. RSS is a web standard for the delivery of news and other frequently updated content provided by web sites. In order to use this service from your computer and retrieve new items, you need to download an RSS reader. There are numerous RSS readers from which to choose and many are available to download free from the Web. Different RSS readers behave and display data differently.

For more information go to:

<http://chronicle.com/help/rss.htm>

The Chronicle of Higher Education is available at the Educational access level and can be used remotely from home or office through the Library's website.

To access this resource and for more information visit the Library web site at:

Visit the Winter Olympics Exhibit at the Library

Through March, the HAM-TMC Library is hosting an historical exhibit on the Winter Olympics to recognize the games being held in Torino, Italy from February 10th to 26th, 2006. This exciting exhibit includes torches from the 1994 Lillehammer and 2002 Salt Lake City Games, participatory medals from the 1980 Lake Placid and the 1984 Sarajevo Games, and various tickets, programs and promotional items dating from the first Winter

Olympic Games in 1928 in St. Moritz, Switzerland. The exhibit is on loan from John P. (Jack) Kelly of the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau. Jack is also Secretary General of USA Baseball and sits on an Olympic Committee. Free brown bag seminars will highlight various aspects of the Winter Olympics and sports medicine. All seminars will take place in the Street Level Conference Room of the HAM-TMC Library from 11:30 -12:30.

Free seminars schedule:

February 14—John Elliot, PhD, Rice University Department of Kinesiology

March 2—John P. (Jack) Kelly, Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau

March 10—Peter Weyand, Rice University Department of Kinesiology
