New in PubMed

It is easy to build complex searches in PubMed using the new History feature. The History page displays all searches performed recently in PubMed. Each search has a search statement number you can use to build and refine searches.

Quick tips:

The Search History will be deleted after 8 hours of inactivity.

Citations in the Clipboard are represented by the search number #0, which may be used in Boolean search statements

The History feature holds only 100 searches

Citations in the Clipboard are represented by the search number #0, which may be used in Boolean search statements

Copyright in the Digital Age

The presentation CYA: Copyright in the Digital Age addresses several topics, including the use of licensed and protected digital information in online courses, new copyright tools such as Creative Commons, and publisher agreement addenda that provide ways for authors to retain some rights for articles being published in traditional toll-based journals.
