Save the Date: February 16, 2012 – An Evening With Icons: Honoring Dr. Denton Cooley and Dr. James “Red” Duke

Join the Friends of the Texas Medical Center Library for An Evening With Icons honoring Dr. Denton Cooley and Dr. James “Red” Duke on Thursday, February 16, 2012 from 6:30 - 9:30 pm, this event will take place on the first floor of the Texas Medical Center Library, located at 1133 John Freeman Blvd., Houston, Texas 77030.

The master of ceremonies will be Craig Roberts, a well-known local television and radio personality. Four upscale Houston restaurants will provide a sumptuous buffet. Fine wines and champagne will also be served. Valet parking will be provided.

The Friends of the Texas Medical Center Library are privileged and honored to celebrate the global contributions of Dr. Cooley and Dr. Duke.

Proceeds will benefit the Texas Medical Center Library electronic journal collection. An Evening With Icons is chaired by Herbert L. Fred, MD, MACP.

RefWorks Changes

Next time you access RefWorks, the interface may look a little different. RefWorks "Classic" will be replaced by RefWorks 2.0 on December 31, 2011. If you haven't used RefWorks recently or if you haven't had the opportunity to investigate the new interface, you may check the following video:

http://www.refworks-cos.com/refworks/rwpreview/RefWorks\_New\_UI\_demo.htm

Some of the changes with the new interface are:

- A new Write'n'Cite interface will be released with RefWorks 2.0. You can preview this interface by visiting the link: <http://www.refworks.com/refworks2/writencite4.htm>
- A Group Code will no longer be needed for access, once you have set up your RefWorks account.

To access RefWorks via RefMobile you will be able to use your personal login and to use all components of RefWorks, whether you happen to be on or off campus. In order to implement the change, RefWorks advises customers that a very few personal logins may need to be changed. This only applies to you if you have used the same login for multiple accounts. If you need assistance with login problems e-mail RefWorks support at: support@refworks.com.

We would like to remind you that through the generosity of the provider, ProQuest, the one database you can continue to use when you leave the Texas Medical Center is RefWorks. If you have already been a user of RefWorks through The TMC Library's subscription, you have lifetime complementary access.

Questions? contact the Reference and Outreach Department via chat, e-mail, phone or in person at: <http://www.library.tmc.edu/ask>

Harris County Public Library (HCPL) Branch at the TMC Library Now Open

Library materials from HCPL are now available to be checked-out at the TMC Library. Do you need a particular leisure book or novel? Simply select the materials you want in the HCPL catalog at www.hcpl.net, place a request using your HCPL library card, and the items will be delivered to the TMC Library. You will receive a notification by e-mail or phone and have one week to pick them up. If you would just like to browse, the library has a small collection of books for adults, children and teens available on site.

If you don't have a HCPL library card, you can apply for one online at: <http://www.hcpl.net/about/library-cards> or at The TMC Library. Library cards are free to residents of the state of Texas with proof of mailing address and three-month visitor cards are available for non-Texas residents.

The HCPL has an extensive collection of e-Books and e-Audios.
