

The Insider Express

A monthly e-newsletter of the HAM-TMC Library

Vol. 8 (8) 2010

Topics: Save the Date: Library's September Events; SciVerse a New Combined Search from Science Direct; MedlinePlus Has a New Look; Mobile Access to Tests in Print Database; Library Holiday Hours; September 2010 Library Classes

Save the Date: Library's September Events

The HAM-TMC Library is sponsoring two events in September. These events are held in conjunction with the exhibit How Healing Becomes Killing: Eugenics, Euthanasia and Extermination currently on loan to our library by the Holocaust Museum Houston.

A lecture on Reflections Upon Galatea presented by Dr. John Lienhard will take place on Tuesday September 14, 2010 from 3-4:30 at the auditorium of The University of Texas Medical School building room MSB 3.001.

Daniel Cardinal DiNardo will lead a panel discussion on Eugenics on Wednesday September 29, 2010 from 3-5:00 at the same location.

Participating panelists are: Rabbi Samuel E. Karff, Daniel Cardinal DiNardo, and Sheldon Rubinfeld, MD. The panel will be moderated by Thomas R. Cole, PhD.

If you would like more information about this event please call Beatriz Varman at 713.799.7169 or e-mail Beatriz at beatriz.varman@exch.library.tmc.edu

SciVerse a New Combined Search from Science Direct

Elsevier recently announced the development of a combined search and discovery platform, SciVerse, which will draw from ScienceDirect and the Scopus, Scirus and SciTopics databases to enrich your search results. Three new applications will come with the interface, all projected to go live this August 28th. According to the publisher, these aids are harbingers of more API's to come in 2011, from Elsevier and from third parties, to enhance SciVerse's usefulness. Developers will soon be able to build, adapt and share discovery tools tailored to the specific needs of researchers.

Applications being launched with SciVerse are:

- Methodology Section Search Application - enables searching a subsection of methodologies and procedures only
- Sentence-Matching - will display query terms in context of the sentences in which they appear
- Prolific Author Search - brings the topic's most relevant authors to the top of your results, with links to their Scopus citations

For a more detailed overview of how SciVerse can enhance scholarly research, please go to Elsevier's SciVerse home page at: <http://www.hub.sciverse.com/action/home>

MedlinePlus Has a New Look

A major redesign of MedlinePlus was announced on Wednesday July 14, 2010. These changes are in response to user suggestions. The new features include:

- New "Videos & Cool Tools" page includes tutorials, calculators, quizzes and games
- Health topic pages and interactive tutorials have a Share button for Twitter, RSS feeds and other applications
- Frequently-used content and medical dictionary are highlighted on home page
- Drugs & Supplements page includes new links to related topics.

Visit MedlinePlus at: <http://www.nlm.nih.gov/medlineplus/>

To access the mobile version of MedlinePlus go to: <http://m.medlineplus.gov/>

Mobile Access to Tests in Print Database

Tests in Print (TIP) is a database produced by the Buros Institute of Mental Measurements at University of Nebraska. It's a comprehensive bibliography to all known commercially available tests currently in print in English. TIP provides vital information on each test: purpose, publisher, in-print status, price, test acronym, intended test population, administration times, publication date(s), and test author(s).

To access Tests in Print Mobile, go to the Library website: <http://www.library.tmc.edu/>, click on Databases, select Tests in Print and click on the link, "Mobile access to Tests in Print is available here:"

This database can be accessed using EBSCOhost Mobile.

Library's Mystery Author on the New York Times Best Seller List

Murder Past Due, a new novel by Miranda James (nom-de-plume of mystery writer Dean James, Associate Director of Collection Development), has made the New York Times best-seller list for Paperback Mass-Market Fiction. This is the first book of a new series about the investigative adventures of a widower librarian and his Maine Coon cat. The books are set in a fictional small town in Mississippi.

Congratulations Dean.

Library Holiday Hours

The Library will be closed on Monday September 6, 2010 in observance of Labor Day. Regular hours resume on Tuesday September 7.

September 2010 Library Classes

PubMed – Basic

Thursday, September 9
10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

PubMed for Nurses 1 CNE Contact Hour

Tuesday, September 14
3:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

RefWorks

Thursday, September 16

10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

PubMed – Basic

Tuesday, September 21

6:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

OVID – Medline

Wednesday, September 22

2:00 – 4:00 p.m.

Classes are free and are offered in the Library classroom.

To view the complete schedule and to register, check the Library web site:

<http://resource.library.tmc.edu/cls/>

The Insider Express communicates Library news to our users and the Texas Medical Center community. To subscribe or to be removed from this list, please send a message to:

liblines@exch.library.tmc.edu
